Joint Duty Credit: All NGA executive level positions require Joint Duty credit. Employees will receive joint duty credit for almost any service or rotational assignment that was at least at the GS/GG-13 or DCIPS Pay Band 3 level, and generally for at least one year, or for 179 days or more when deployed to a designated combat zone on or after September 11, 2001.

Note: Employees without Joint Duty credit may apply for the position and can be considered. If selected a waiver would be required prior to final appointment. An external candidate, if selected, will be required to provide proof of Joint Duty credit or immediately apply for Joint Duty credit prior to EOD. NGA seniors without Joint Duty at the same tier level may lateral into the position if selected without requesting a waiver.

Basic Duties and Responsibilities: Serves as the single focal point within NGA for the integration of activities related to Targeting, and the Director of NGA's representative and substantive expert on the issue. Serves as NGA's focal point on strategic intelligence, policy issues, and coordination of operational planning related to Targeting. Coordinates across NGA and the National System for Geospatial-Intelligence (NSG) to ensure that GEOINT is positioned to contribute to the fullest extent. Provides recommendations to NGA senior leadership on investments or initiatives that will improve mission accomplishment, and priority requirements for advanced research and development related to Targeting. Serves as NGA's Senior Representative to establish and maintain working relationship with Intelligence Community and Department of Defense targeting counterparts. Leads development and execution of a GEOINT Program of Analysis for Targeting to get to critical analytic outcomes. Coordinates across unit analytic issues to ensure agency and NSG products are fully vetted and meet analytic standards. Promotes strategies and analytic techniques. Provides leadership and serves as the advocate for analytic tradecraft requirements for geospatial intelligence support to targeting in NGA business and transformational activities as well as in greater Intelligence Community and Department of Defense community activities. Promotes, employs and incorporates innovative technologies and tools and leverages new systems in ensuring the Agency is at the forefront of applying the latest capabilities. Champions ongoing specialized training and career development for geospatial-intelligence analysts, for analyzing the capabilities and intentions of hard and soft targets.

Intelligence Community (IC) Senior Officer Core Qualification (SOCQ) Standard -

Leading the Intelligence Enterprise: Required for all positions effective 1 October 2010. This SOCQ Standard involves the ability to integrate resources, information, interests, and activities effectively in support of the IC's mission and to lead and leverage cross organizational collaborative networks to achieve significant mission results. Inherent to this Standard is a deep understanding of the intelligence enterprise (or other comparable interagency or multi-organizational environment) and a shared commitment to the IC's core values. (Include as separate attachment one page maximum per competency)

(1) Collaboration and Integration:

IC Senior officers have a responsibility to share information and knowledge to achieve results, and in that regard are expected to build effective networks and alliances; actively engage these peers and stakeholders; involve them in key decision; and effectively leverage these networks and alliances to achieve significant results. Senior officers are expected to create an environment that promotes employee engagement, collaboration, integration, information and knowledge sharing, and the candid, open exchange of diverse points of view. Candidates assessed against this competency must:

- Build, leverage, and lead collaborative networks with key peers and stakeholders across the IC and/or in other government/private-sector organizations, or professional/technical disciplines to achieve significant joint/multi-agency mission outcomes
- Integrate joint/multi-agency activities effectively exercising collaborative plans that realize mutual IC, joint, or multi-organizational goals.

(2) Enterprise Focus:

IC Senior officers are expected to demonstrate a deep understanding of how the missions, structures, leaders, and cultures of the various IC components interact and connect; synthesize resources, information and other inputs to effectively integrate and align component, IC, and USG interests and activities to achieve IC-wide, national, and international priorities. Senior officers are expected to encourage and support Joint Duty assignments and developmental experiences that develop and reinforce enterprise focus among their subordinates. Candidates assessed against this competency must:

- Understand the roles, missions, capabilities, and organizational and political realities of the intelligence enterprise; apply that understanding to drive joint, interagency, or multi-organizational mission accomplishment.
- Understand how organizations, resources, information, and processes within the IC or interagency/multi-organizational environment interact with and influence one another; apply that understanding to solve complex interagency or multi-organizational problems.

(3) Values-Centered Leadership:

IC Senior officers are expected to personally embody, advance and reinforce IC core values. Senior officers are also expected to demonstrate and promote departmental and/or component core values. Candidates assessed against this competency must demonstrate:

- A Commitment to selfless service and excellence in support of the IC's mission, as well as to preserving, protecting, and defending the Nation's laws and liberties;
- The integrity and Courage (moral, intellectual, and physical) to seek and speak the truth, to innovate, and to change things for the better, regardless of personal or professional risk;
- Collaboration as members of a single IC-wide team, respecting and leveraging the diversity of all members of the IC, their background, their sources and methods, and their points of view.
- Promote, reinforce, and reward IC, departmental/component core values in the workforce and ensure that actions, policies, and practices are aligned with, and embody those values.
- Ensure that organizational strategies, policies, procedures, and actions give appropriate focus, attention, and commitment to diversity of people, point of view, ideas, and insights.

Position Demands: This executive level position requires experience in Targeting. Must be able to make significant contributions to the advancement of the field as evidenced by previous, documented efforts. Educational background to include a bachelor's degree or higher and related experience with emphasis on targeting is required. A graduate degree in a pertinent discipline is desirable but not required.

Note that you may be required to relocate in the future, based on mission need, nature of work performed by NGA, and the needs of NGA partners worldwide.

Technical Qualification Requirements: Applicants will be rated on the "Specialized Experience" requirements and "Additional Factors" identified below which are essential for successful performance in the position. These statements should be included as separate attachments (not to exceed 2 pages for Specialized Experience and 1 page for each Additional Factor) and are a narrative explanation of your relevant background and experience. These statements must show that your experience, education, and accomplishments reflect the competence and professional standing required to provide expertise required by this position. Technical Qualification Statements that do not clearly address the qualification criteria will not be adequate for evaluation. (A recommended approach for addressing the Technical Qualifications is provided at the end of this vacancy announcement.)

A. Specialized Experience:

Training, Education and/or degrees in area of expertise. Candidates must have at least three years of specialized experience within the last ten years, characteristic of and as described above in the duties and responsibilities.

B. Additional Factors: The following will be considered in determining the candidate's qualifications: In addition to the five Executive Core Qualifications (ECQs) which are mandatory for all DISES level positions, the employee occupying this position must possess:

1. Broad knowledge of all aspects of the GEOINT analysis and production mission to include understanding of operational requirements, design, production, management, dissemination and applications of intelligence information and its associated processes and technologies.
2. Broad understanding of the Department of Defense and the Intelligence Community to include their policies, programs and subordinate organizations especially as they relate to Targeting
3. Extensive, expert knowledge of GEOINT analytic process, technology, tradecraft, policies/authorities, and international programs as they relate to targeting.
4. Demonstrated ability to operate shifting priorities, adapt to a fast-paced environment, and deliver under pressure
5. Demonstrated experience in utilizing communications skills, both oral and written, to engage with key stakeholders/customers/partners to lead effective and efficient integration of GEOINT related to Targeting across organizational boundaries in the national security environment
6. Demonstrated ability to develop and lead a significant, highly visible and multi-faceted intelligence activity to include understanding of associated budgetary and personnel resources.

Desired Qualifications: All senior-level positions at NGA require strong leadership competency. Demonstration of established leadership competencies may be used to rank otherwise similarly qualified applicants and, therefore, all applicants are strongly encouraged to address the following competencies in their application package.

(Include as separate attachment one page maximum per competency)

(1) Leading Change:

This core qualification involves the ability to bring about strategic change, both within and outside the organization, to meet organizational goals. (2) Leading People:

This core qualification involves the ability to lead people toward meeting the organization's vision, mission, and goals. Inherent to this ECQ is the ability to provide an inclusive workplace that fosters the development of others, facilitates cooperation and teamwork, and supports constructive resolution of conflicts. Competencies include:

- Conflict Management - Encourages creative tension and differences of opinions. Anticipates and takes steps to prevent counter-productive confrontations. Manages and resolves conflicts and disagreements in a constructive manner.

- Leveraging Diversity - Fosters an inclusive workplace where diversity and individual differences are valued and leveraged to achieve the vision and mission of the organization.
- Developing Others - Develops the ability of others to perform and contribute to the organization by providing ongoing feedback and by providing opportunities to learn through formal and informal methods.
- Team Building - Inspires and fosters team commitment, spirit, pride, and trust. Facilitates cooperation and motivates team members to accomplish group goals.

(3) Results Driven:

This core qualification involves the ability to meet organizational goals and customer expectations. Inherent to this ECQ is the ability to make decisions that produce high-quality results by applying technical knowledge, analyzing problems, and calculating risks.

Competencies include:

- Accountability - Holds self and others accountable for measurable high-quality, timely, and cost effective results. Determines objectives, sets priorities, and delegates work. Accepts responsibility for mistakes. Complies with established control systems and rules.
- Customer Service - Anticipates and meets the needs of both internal and external customers. Delivers high-quality products and services; is committed to continuous improvement.
- Decisiveness - Makes well-informed, effective, and timely decisions, even when data are limited or solutions produce unpleasant consequences; perceives the impact and implications of decisions.
- Entrepreneurship - Positions the organization for future success by identifying new opportunities; builds the organization by developing or improving products or services. Takes calculated risks to accomplish organizational objectives.
- Problem Solving – Identifies and analyzes problems; weighs relevance and accuracy of information; generates and evaluates alternative solutions; makes recommendations.
- Technical Credibility – Understands and appropriately applies principles, procedures, requirements, regulations, and policies related to specialized expertise.

(4) Business Acumen:

This core qualification involves the ability to manage human, financial, material, and information resources strategically. Competencies include:

- Financial Management – Understands the organization's financial processes. Prepares, justifies, and administers the program budget. Oversees procurement and contracting to achieve desired results. Monitors expenditures and uses cost-benefit thinking to set priorities.
- Human Capital Management - Builds and manages workforce based on organizational goals, budget considerations, and staffing needs. Ensures that employees are appropriately recruited, selected, appraised, and rewarded; takes action to address performance problems. Manages a multi-sector workforce and a variety of work situations.
- Technology Management – Keeps up-to-date on technological developments. Makes effective use of technology to achieve results. Ensures access to and security of technology systems.

(5) Building Coalitions:

This core qualification involves the ability to build coalitions internally and with other Federal agencies, State and local governments, nonprofit and private sector organizations, foreign governments, or international organizations to achieve common goals. Competencies include:

- Partnering - Develops networks and builds alliances; collaborates across boundaries to build strategic relationships and achieve common goals.
- Political Savvy – Identifies the internal and external politics that impact the work of the organization. Perceives organizational and political reality and acts accordingly.
- Influencing/Negotiating – Persuades others; builds consensus through give and take; gains cooperation from others to obtain information and accomplish goals.

(6) Fundamental Competencies:

These competencies are the foundation for success in each of the Executive Core Qualifications. Competencies include:

- Interpersonal Skills – Treats others with courtesy, sensitivity, and respect. Considers and responds appropriately to the needs and feelings of different people in different situations.

- Oral Communication – Makes clear and convincing oral presentations. Listens effectively; clarifies information as needed.
- Integrity/Honesty – Behaves in an honest, fair, and ethical manner. Shows consistency in words and actions. Models high standards of ethics.
- Written Communication – Writes in a clear, concise, organized, and convincing manner for the intended audience.
- Continual Learning – Assesses and recognizes own strengths and weaknesses; pursues self-development.
- Public Service Motivation – Shows a commitment to serve the public. Ensures that actions meet public needs; aligns organizational objectives and practices with public interests.

Because the “(6) Fundamental Competencies” are cross-cutting, they can be addressed over the course of the other competencies. It is not necessary to address them separately as long as the narrative, in its totality, shows mastery of these competencies on the whole.
