NGA statement on the death of Yvonne Selke

SPRINGFIELD, Virginia – The National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency lost a long-time contract employee, Yvonne Selke, when Germanwings Flight 9525 crashed in the French Alps yesterday.

“Every death is a tragedy, but seldom does a death affect us all so directly and unexpectedly,” said NGA Director Robert Cardillo. “All of us offer our deepest condolences and will keep her family and her colleagues in our thoughts.”

NGA is offering employees one-on-one confidential counseling and services.
