NGA deputy director in Huntsville to highlight GEOINT support to missile defense

SPRINGFIELD, Va. — National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency Deputy Director Sue Gordon will highlight the agency's support to missile defense at the Space and Missile Defense Symposium, Huntsville, Alabama, August 12.

Gordon will discuss NGA contributions to geospatial intelligence, including the success of the NGA support team embedded at the Missile and Space Intelligence Center (MSIC), during her keynote address at 10:45 a.m. CT, in the Von Braun Center.

Gordon will also highlight NGA's support to current national security challenges, operating transparently and strengthening partnerships amongst industry and academia.

For more about NGA's contribution to space and missile defense, read Gordon's as prepared remarks.

The Space and Missile Defense Symposium, Aug. 10-13, draws space and missile defense advocates, developers and supporting technologists from industry, government and academia from across the U.S. and allied nations. For more about the Space and Missile Defense Symposium, visit the website.
