2023-FOIA-00058	Anker, Roberto	6/12/2023	-	-	Digital files, in RAW, JPEG or other format, or large scale printed photographs of high-resolution satellite photographs of Tiananmen Square, Beijing, China. On the following dates: June 3 through 5, 1989; these three days corresponding to the final incidents of the Tiananmen Square protests and massacre. UPDATED REQUEST BELOW- This is a clarification/simplification of the above mentioned request. Clarification/Simplification. The original request most likely consists of an overwhelming amount of data/material and therefore I would like to request only a limited representative material. June 3, 1989: Representative images at every three hours of the day and evening. Night of June 32 to early morning of June 42 (June 3, 8 PM until June 4, 6 AM): This is the time period at which the People Liberation Army (PLA) moved into Tiananmen Square in order to take control of the square from the protesting students with multiple fires arising as a result of the standoff and confrontation. Representative images at every hour of this time period are very important. June 4, 1989: Representative images at every three hours of the day and evening . June 5, 1989, 10 AM - midday: "The tank man" episode occurred in the morning of June 5, on Chang'an Avenue, just barely east from Tiananmen Square and probably sometime between 10 AM and midday, judging by the angle of the shadows of the tanks and the man confronting the tanks. Representative images of this two hour period are very important.
